

12 KILLED IN AUTO CRASHES

Series of Accidents Take Toll in Illinois, Wisconsin

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Six persons were killed in traffic accidents over the week end in and near Chicago. Four were buried to death when a Rock Island Express train bound for Omaha, crashed into an automobile load of persons on the southside here. Three others were badly hurt.

Nicolina Gianna, 8, died shortly after being struck by an automobile. Victor Skodius, 35, died from injuries received when an automobile in which he was riding with five companions turned turtle.

SIX KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

NEW ORLEANS, Wis., Sept. 2.—Six persons were killed near here last night when their automobile was demolished by a Chicago and Northwest-bound passenger train.

10,000 AT LABOR

(Continued from Page 1)

Long and Lawrence Debeaux; little girls' race, Amy Bell Kibbe and bear walk, Adam Long and Chas. Pre-vo.

Wedding Outstanding Event

Twelve rounds of exhibition boxing followed the athletic contests, no decision bouts being enjoyed by hundreds of fight fans. Boxers were young Dempsey against Knock Out Smith, four rounds; Tough Tony against Farting Laque, four rounds; Kid Carl against Yohn, Nunez.

The crowning event of the entire celebration was the wedding at 6 p. m. of Miss Marion McDonald and L. D. Rodriguez, who were the principals. As many as could gather around the altar erected for the public wedding watched Rev. V. A. Godfrey perform the ceremony. Miss Iona Trofclair as brides maid and Hayden English as best man acted for the couple.

Dancing was the night feature and one of the events of the afternoon. Band concerts by the 11th Engineers band were enjoyed at intervals during the night and afternoon under direction of G. F. Stump.

"The best Labor Day celebration in the history of Port Arthur," was the comment today of Henry Maitre, general chairman of the annual festivity.

August Collections By City $20,250.20

Collections made by G. K. Lomax, city tax collector and assessor, reached $20,250.20 in August, according to report filed this morning with Mayor J. P. Logan.

Lomax's report is as follows:

Collections: fines and costs, $1863.55; occupation tax, $61.25; pound fees, $36.00; scavenger tax, $1861.30; bills for collection abattoir, $1156.40; building permits, $278.00; electrical inspection, $98.50; board prisoners, miscellaneous, $1258.81; delinquent tax, penalties, costs, $745.18; water and sewer department, $12.12; 901.21. Total collections $20,290.20.

Deposits: General fund, $7247.60; interest and sinking fund, $241.39; water and sewer fund $12,901.21. Total $20,290.20.

FINGER PRINT MEN CONVENE AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, Sept. 2.—Twenty-five finger print experts, comprising the vanguard of fully 200 delegates to the International Association for Identification Convention convening here September 5, 6, and 7th, arrived in Houston Monday night.

Included among the list of early arrivals was Charles C. Carmody, Detroit, president of the association, and E. O. Stephens, assistant in the Detroit identification bureau.

REVENUE OFFICER DEAD AT TYLER

TYLER, Texas, Sept. 2.—D. Guile, field representative for the Internal revenue department of Dallas, dropped dead at his home here late yesterday. Heart disease was believed to have been the cause of death. Guile was a former United States deputy marshall and prominent in state republican state circles.

192 VESSELS GO UNDER PIER BRIDGE IN AUGUST

A total of 192 vessels inward and outward bound passed through the pier bridge here during the month of August, according to a report kept by Edgar Brown, bridge operator. Of the number of ships, 90 were ocean going vessels; 40 barges and 152 tow boats, the report sets forth.

The right way to skin beauty

EVERY skin will respond to correct treatment, but don't overlook that word correct—it means the difference between success and failure.

In addition to being unsupervised for general toilet use, Resinol Soap, aided by Resinol Ointment improves poor complexions. Blotches, roughness, clogged pores, redness, and even the more serious itching, smarting skin disorders gradually disappear when the Resinol treatment is used.

Ask your druggist today for Resinol Soap and Ointment and use them as directed. Within a week you will begin to notice a difference in your skin.

RESINOL

Wales Slips Out on an All Night Party, Is Home at Dawn

CRANE FLAYS

(Continued from Page 1) of Dallas, and other temporary officers were approved with the acceptance of the report on temporary organization.

Crane was then brought to the platform by a special committee and after a speech of acceptance took charge of the convention.

Several Refuse to Applaud

Crane's speech was a denunciation of the Klan, which he named, and was applauded and cheered from start to finish.

He flayed Joseph Simmons, E. Y. Clarke and Hiram Evans while the delegates cheered.

During the denunciation of the Klan, some of the delegations refused to applaud. Chief among these was that of Tarrant county whose members sat silent while others cheered and applauded.

The most damnable feature of the Klan organization is that it seeks to force men to join its ranks, and if they refuse their business is destroyed, General Crane said. I am surprised that the preachers have got into the Klan. When I see Baptist preachers or any other preacher put a hood on, I am ashamed of him. The Klan is wrong from start to finish. There's no place for a secret political organization in this country.

Crane Interrupted

General Crane was interrupted by a voice:

"Tell us about the Knights of Columbus."

Cries coming from the anti-Klan delegates included:

"Make your own speech," "where's his hood?"

Addressing his interrogator General Crane said loudly and warmly:

"If any gentleman desires to ask me a respectable question, I will answer it. If he wants to turn blackguard, I say put him out."

There was no further questioning and General Crane resumed his denunciation of the Klan. "There has been some criticism of the Jews by the Klan," he said. "The reason is that the Jews have too much sense than to pay $16.50 for an old bed sheet. No wonder they cannot be members of the Klan."

Asks End to Pro Wrangle

"There has been a good deal said in a campaign about honesty. I dare any man to say, that Mrs. Ferguson is not honest." This brought another prolonged demonstration for Mrs. Ferguson.

General Crane told the Klansmen that they were being bossed worse than the negroes were bossed by southern planters in slavery time.

"Withdraw from the Klan, and we will take you back into the democratic party and never remind you of the bad company you have kept. As to the Dragons and Titans, we will apply the repentance and we will take them on Methodist rule, bring forth meat for probation." You are to be pitied," Crane told the Klan delegates. "You say you were helping the country but you found you were bound in an oligarchy headed by Evans."

Crane pleaded for an end of bickering over prohibition in Texas, which he termed "damnable foolishness."

Ferguson was given his first official recognition when he was named as one of the floor leaders of the convention.

The roll call of districts followed and a brief adjournment taken for caucuses.

When the convention opened anti-force claimed there was every evidence that the Klan had been whipped and anti-Klanmen are openly declaring that today's convention from the Klan standpoint will be more of a funeral with the Klan delegates acting as pall bearers.

Steamroller Greased

The Ferguson steamroller is greased and anything that bobs in opposition to Ferguson and the anti-Klan element will be promptly flattened out. There are many delegates who assert that the convention will consume only today in performing its work and that tonight they will be on the return trip home.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, wife of James E. Ferguson, impeached and removed from the governor's office September 23, 1917, who is to be declared as nominee of the Texas democrats for governor is attending the convention as a delegate and when she appeared in the convention hall she was extended an ovation lasting for a considerable period.

Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, who is to be permanent chairman, also caused an outburst of applause when first he arrived, and so down the line of the appearance of notables in Texas

Outwits Reporters, Attends Function at Which Good Time was Had by All—But Debutantes

SYOSSETT, L. I., N. Y., Sept. 2.—The Prince of Wales had a night out last n. ht. The heir to the British throne returned to Syosset at 6 a. m., today accompanied by only one secret service man and a chauffeur, having completely outwitted a score of reporters.

Wales went to bed at once and was still sleeping soundly at 11 a. m.

All sorts of rumors as to where H. R. H. had spent the night were in circulation and the United Press finally got the story from a member of the prince's staff who said the prince dined and spent the day and extended evening at the home of Devereux Milburn, captain of the American polo team. The big Milburn estate on Long Island had been specially prepared for the British heir, and according to backstairs gossip, the party was a great success.

After returning from the international races at Belmont Park the prince motored alone to the Milburn estate where he met informally a party of 15, including Tommy Hitchcock of the American polo team and other horsemen.

There was dancing after dinner and later a swim. The party continued until dawn.

But the prince left no broken hearts behind, as none of the Long Island debutantes were invited.

Debutantes included:

"Make your own speech," "where's his hood?"

Addressing his interrogator General Crane said loudly and warmly:

"If any gentleman desires to ask me a respectable question, I will answer it. If he wants to turn blackguard, I say put him out."

There was no further questioning and General Crane resumed his denunciation of the Klan. "There has been some criticism of the Jews by the Klan," he said. "The reason is that the Jews have too much sense than to pay $16.50 for an old bed sheet. No wonder they cannot be members of the Klan."

Asks End to Pro Wrangle

"There has been a good deal said in a campaign about honesty. I dare any man to say, that Mrs. Ferguson is not honest." This brought another prolonged demonstration for Mrs. Ferguson.

General Crane told the Klansmen that they were being bossed worse than the negroes were bossed by southern planters in slavery time.

"Withdraw from the Klan, and we will take you back into the democratic party and never remind you of the bad company you have kept. As to the Dragons and Titans, we will apply the repentance and we will take them on Methodist rule, bring forth meat for probation." You are to be pitied," Crane told the Klan delegates. "You say you were helping the country but you found you were bound in an oligarchy headed by Evans."

Crane pleaded for an end of bickering over prohibition in Texas, which he termed "damnable foolishness."

Ferguson was given his first official recognition when he was named as one of the floor leaders of the convention.

The roll call of districts followed and a brief adjournment taken for caucuses.

When the convention opened anti-force claimed there was every evidence that the Klan had been whipped and anti-Klanmen are openly declaring that today's convention from the Klan standpoint will be more of a funeral with the Klan delegates acting as pall bearers.

Steamroller Greased

The Ferguson steamroller is greased and anything that bobs in opposition to Ferguson and the anti-Klan element will be promptly flattened out. There are many delegates who assert that the convention will consume only today in performing its work and that tonight they will be on the return trip home.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, wife of James E. Ferguson, impeached and removed from the governor's office September 23, 1917, who is to be declared as nominee of the Texas democrats for governor is attending the convention as a delegate and when she appeared in the convention hall she was extended an ovation lasting for a considerable period.

Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, who is to be permanent chairman, also caused an outburst of applause when first he arrived, and so down the line of the appearance of notables in Texas

$2,000 THEFT

Fake Passenger Tricks Jeweler into Admitting Him

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 2.—A lone robber held up and robbed James Moore of Sterling Jewelry company of over $20,000 and $25,000 paid today after Moore had opened the store at the day's business.

Waving an apparently armed pistol, the man tricked Moore into opening the door for him. The robber thrust a pistol into Moore's ribs, emptied the rays of jewelry into a small sack and fled.

Moore was then brought to the platform by a special committee and after a speech of acceptance took charge of the convention.

Several Refuse to Applaud

Crane's speech was a denunciation of the Klan, which he named, and was applauded and cheered from start to finish.

He flayed Joseph Simmons, E. Y. Clarke and Hiram Evans while the delegates cheered.

During the denunciation of the Klan, some of the delegations refused to applaud. Chief among these was that of Tarrant county whose members sat silent while others cheered and applauded.

The most damnable feature of the Klan organization is that it seeks to force men to join its ranks, and if they refuse their business is destroyed, General Crane said. I am surprised that the preachers have got into the Klan. When I see Baptist preachers or any other preacher put a hood on, I am ashamed of him. The Klan is wrong from start to finish. There's no place for a secret political organization in this country.

Asks End to Pro Wrangle

"There has been a good deal said in a campaign about honesty. I dare any man to say, that Mrs. Ferguson is not honest." This brought another prolonged demonstration for Mrs. Ferguson.

General Crane told the Klansmen that they were being bossed worse than the negroes were bossed by southern planters in slavery time.

"Withdraw from the Klan, and we will take you back into the democratic party and never remind you of the bad company you have kept. As to the Dragons and Titans, we will apply the repentance and we will take them on Methodist rule, bring forth meat for probation." You are to be pitied," Crane told the Klan delegates. "You say you were helping the country but you found you were bound in an oligarchy headed by Evans."

Crane pleaded for an end of bickering over prohibition in Texas, which he termed "damnable foolishness."

Ferguson was given his first official recognition when he was named as one of the floor leaders of the convention.

The roll call of districts followed and a brief adjournment taken for caucuses.

When the convention opened anti-force claimed there was every evidence that the Klan had been whipped and anti-Klanmen are openly declaring that today's convention from the Klan standpoint will be more of a funeral with the Klan delegates acting as pall bearers.

Steamroller Greased

The Ferguson steamroller is greased and anything that bobs in opposition to Ferguson and the anti-Klan element will be promptly flattened out. There are many delegates who assert that the convention will consume only today in performing its work and that tonight they will be on the return trip home.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, wife of James E. Ferguson, impeached and removed from the governor's office September 23, 1917, who is to be declared as nominee of the Texas democrats for governor is attending the convention as a delegate and when she appeared in the convention hall she was extended an ovation lasting for a considerable period.

Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, who is to be permanent chairman, also caused an outburst of applause when first he arrived, and so down the line of the appearance of notables in Texas

MARKETS

WALL STREET JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Wall Street turned to business at the start of the first session marked with optimism on both the political and economic outlook. Not in many years has the period of autumnal business expansion held so much promise. The many points of strength are numerous. Money is plentiful, commodity prices rising, European stability and the seemingly certainty. The general list maintained a strong tone and operations in various special stocks reached considerable vigor.

Among the issues featured at various stages of the day were the American Pipe, Peoples Gas, Brooklyn Union Gas and Northern American Motors displayed group strength with Nash, Studebaker, Maxwell and Stewart.

CLOSING PRICES

U. S. Steel 1094, off 4.
Baldwin 1232, up 2.
Studebaker 324, up 2.
American Can 130, off 1.
Cast Iron Pipe 167, off 1.
Davidson Chemical 414, off 4.
Sears, Roebuck 1094, up 2.
Mack Truck 614, off 1.
General Electric 2714, off 2.
M. K. & T. 161, up 1.
Frisco 281, up 1.
New Marquette 623, up 1.
North American 109, off 1.
Southern Railway 671, off 1.
Eric

CROWDS HEAR REV. OLIPHANT

Evangelist Makes Plea For Undenominationalism

Making a plea for undenominational Christianity, Evangelist W. L. Oliphant of Oklahoma, Sunday night spoke on "A Search for the Old Corner-Stone," at the open air revival service at the DeQueen Park Church of Christ. Considered from the standpoint of attendance Sunday evening's service was perhaps the best of the entire revival series.

After reviewing the work done by Martin Luther, John Calvin, John Wesley, Alexander Campbell, and other reformers, Mr. Oliphant pleaded with his hearers to not become followers of any of these men, but to go back beyond all of them and be followers of Christ.

"The plea of each of these great reformers was 'Back to the Bible. We do them and their work an injustice if we stop the reformation with the work of any of these men. If we can learn some truth that Wesley or Campbell did not know, it is our duty to do so. Having learned a new truth, my accepting it should not be contingent upon Wesley or Campbell having advocated it."

"When Jesus was 12 years old, his parents took him to Jerusalem with them. When they left Jerusalem, he remained there discussing religious matters with the doctors and lawyers. His people could not miss him until they were a day's journey from the city. When first they discovered that he was not with their company, they searched among the kinsfolk. After finding that he was not there, the mother said, 'Let us go back to Jerusalem where we left him. When they went back to Jerusalem they found him. The world today has left Christ. He has not turned away from us; we have turned from him. What we need to do is to go back to Jerusalem where we left him.' Let us then forget to be followers of Luther, Wesley or Campbell, and go back beyond all these men; back to Jerusalem, and be followers of the Christ."

The meeting will continue all this week. There will be day services each day, except Saturday, at 9 a.m. Evening services each day will begin at 7:45.

HERRIN WANTS TROOPS TO STAY

Citizens Voice Fears Of Further Rioting

HERRIN, Ills., Sept. 2.—A direct appeal to Governor Small, over the head of Adjutant General Charles D. Mack, was considered today by leading citizens here who feel bloodshed will follow withdrawal of state troops who came here Saturday night after seven men were killed and many injured in rioting.

Black told Sheriff Galligan and States Attorney Delos Dutty, that he felt the danger was past and said he considered removing the state troops today.

Inquest Wednesday

Galligan and Dutty, Black said he would. But on vehement protests by Galligan the men here until Wednesday when a coroners inquest into the killings will be held.

Galligan and five of his deputies are out on bond on warrants charging them with murder of three of Saturday's victims. Warrants also were issued for Dutty and Justice E. N. Bowen.

Hundreds in Herrin

On the other hand Galligan has nine prisoners, alleged klansters who he arrested shortly after the outbreak last Saturday. He is moving from jail to jail fearing a rescue attempt.

Hundreds of men from the surrounding country were still in Herrin today and Dutty and Galligan fear another outbreak the moment Dutty resumes his duties.

CRASHING THE GATES

A certain actor was appointed chief of police of a New Jersey hamlet. He was accordingly decorated with a bright and shiny badge, a symbol of his high office.

The first Sunday of his incumbency the new chief went to church. Eventually the collection plate came away.

What did he do?

He flashed his badge!—Metropolitan Magazine.

DARROW'S GREATEST FIGHT

Here is Clarence F. Darrow, veteran Chicago criminal lawyer, at the climax of the greatest fight of his long career—his battle to save Nathan F. Leopold Jr., and Richard A. Loeb from the gallows. Chief Justice John R. Caverly's court was crowded when the "old lion" began his final argument. Darrow was the attraction. And Darrow did not disappoint them. Despite his 67 years, he was delivering the greatest oration of all his 46 years at the bar. Never had a greater plea been made in the little court room. Behind Darrow sits his chief aide, Attorney Benjamin Bachrach (No. 2). Right back of Bachrach is Leopold (No. 3). Next to Nathan is Dickie Loeb (No. 4). Never once did their eyes leave the man who is making the last supreme effort to deny the state their lives.

PASTOR SCORES ALL HYPOCRITS

Hell is Portion, Rev. Culp Tells Audience

Hypocrites in general and the e in particular were scored by Rev. C. W. Culp, pastor of the First Baptist church, in his sermon Sunday night on "Hypocrites and Hi-jackers."

"While it is a sad fact that hypocrites are found in the churches, there are more found in the world, and the man or woman who stays out of the churches because of the hypocrites is hiding behind the smallest possible excuse, for hypocrites are the bitterest things I know," Rev. Culp said.

There is no place in heaven for the hypocrites; hell is their portion, and unless they repent of their sin of hypocrisy and get right with God, they are lost and undone, without hope in the world, the pastor declared. Scriptural quotations from both the Old and New Testaments were given by Rev. Culp to show the kind of people hypocrites are.

In the part of his sermon on hi-jackers, Rev. Culp characterized corporation which steal the life blood of men and women in order to get vast profits as coming under this class. Duly elected officers of the government who sell out to the underworld are also hi-jackers, Rev. Culp said.

The sermon Sunday night was the first of a series of similar discourses given by Rev. Culp during the past several weeks.

DALLAS FIRM MAY PROSECUTE YOUTH

Further evidence against a youth picked up here by Detectives Shepard and Bennett last week with a number of printed checks on a Corcoran Oil drilling concern which was proved by the officers to be non-existent followed today when it was learned a bogus check had been given in Dallas on the alleged drilling company by a young man meeting description of the one held here.

The check was for $54 and was given to a Dallas clothing concern to pay for a suit of clothes. Name of the clothing company was found on the coat of the man held here. A confession of part of his check operations was obtained from the prisoner, who is being held on $500 bond assessed by Judge W. F. James at a preliminary hearing last Thursday.

EXCURSION TO NEW IBERIA

Sunday, Sept. 7th.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC will operate a special excursion train from Port Arthur to New Iberia, stopping at Lake Charles, Welch, Jennings, Crowley, Rayne and Lafayette. Round trip rates will be:

Lake Charles	$2.25
Welch	$2.80
Jennings	$3.25
Crowley	$3.75
Rayne	$3.75
Lafayette	$4.25
New Iberia	$4.75

This train will leave Port Arthur at 6:00 a.m. Tickets will be honored only on special train going, and returning Sunday, but may be purchased any time Saturday, Sept. 6th.

Christian Church To Open Training Classes

Two training classes will be started at the First Christian church this week.

Beginning tonight a teacher training class will be taught by Mrs. B. H. Stanley, superintendent of the Sunday school, the class sessions to be held each night for ten consecutive nights.

"Training for Evangelism" is the second class to be started and this class will meet each Wednesday night following a short praise and prayer service. Rev. R. R. Yelderman, pastor, will teach this class.

BOY STICKS MOUTH ON FAUCET, NEARLY DROWN

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 2.—Funeral services were held today for George D. McGloin, vice president of the Guaranty State bank, who was drowned while attempting to swim Round Lake at San Patricio. The body was recovered Monday and brought to San Antonio. Services were in charge of the Knights of Columbus.

UNEXPECTED CALLER

MALE VOICE ON PHONE—Is this 1122 Mayfair?

LADY DI—No—but—er—do tell me about yourself. I'm bored stiff—London Opinion.

ITCHING ECZEMA IS WORST OF ALL

When you go to the theatre or whenever you are near many people and begin to scratch that eczema or itching part of your body, people become uneasy while they are around you and usually show their resentment to the annoyance.

You don't have to put up with this embarrassment because you can get rid of the trouble you are bothered with by using Black and White Ointment.

It is the quickest way to relieve you of eczema, rash, "breaking out," boils, pimpls, etc. Be sure to use Black and White Soap when you wash to keep the skin soft and smooth after that.

Black and White Ointment and Soap are economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—Adv.

MORNING GLORY CREAMERY BUTTER

A product of the Canning Co.

TRANSFER CITY FUNDS TO SEABOARD TODAY

Transfer of city funds from the First National bank to the Seaboard State Bank and Trust company probably will be effected today, according to City Clerk E. H. Miles. Statements of the condition of funds were being prepared this morning.

The Seaboard was last month awarded the city depository for the coming year when it outbid the First National offering three per cent interest on the average daily balanced against two per cent offered by the First National.

SAN TONE BANKER IS DROWNED IN LAKE

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 2.—Funeral services were held today for George D. McGloin, vice president of the Guaranty State bank, who was drowned while attempting to swim Round Lake at San Patricio. The body was recovered Monday and brought to San Antonio. Services were in charge of the Knights of Columbus.

UNEXPECTED CALLER

MALE VOICE ON PHONE—Is this 1122 Mayfair?

LADY DI—No—but—er—do tell me about yourself. I'm bored stiff—London Opinion.

ITCHING ECZEMA IS WORST OF ALL

When you go to the theatre or whenever you are near many people and begin to scratch that eczema or itching part of your body, people become uneasy while they are around you and usually show their resentment to the annoyance.

You don't have to put up with this embarrassment because you can get rid of the trouble you are bothered with by using Black and White Ointment.

It is the quickest way to relieve you of eczema, rash, "breaking out," boils, pimpls, etc. Be sure to use Black and White Soap when you wash to keep the skin soft and smooth after that.

Black and White Ointment and Soap are economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—Adv.

MORNING GLORY CREAMERY BUTTER

A product of the Canning Co.

LETTER FROM ALICE HAMILTON WHITNEY TO LADY BETTY CARNOVAN

Seems that stupid husband of hers is very jealous all at once, and Leslie made dad's illness an excuse to come to him. She accused me of writing the letter, and what's worse she practically accused me right before Karl. Then it was up to me to tell Karl and do it quick, so I staged another little drama.

I let Karl find me in the summer house with a small bottle of water marked "Poison." When I saw him in the doorway, I gasped out "good-bye!" and put the bottle to my lips.

Betty, I've come to the conclusion that I was born to be an author, as we thought we both were, but that some day I shall be a great actor, for the thing worked much better than I dared hope. Karl rushed forward, grabbed the bottle, took me in his arms and called me every endearing name I ever heard before and some I had not heard.

I told him I was afraid I was going to lose his love, and I could not live without it. I owned up that I had written the anonymous letter, but explained that it was my last desperate attempt to keep him from loving my sister or any other woman.

Betty, men are easily flattered, aren't they? Even Karl seemed to think that if I loved him like that, he should try to make me happy, so he suggested that we be married right away.

Well, it kicked up an awful mess.

Electric fixtures do as much to beautify a house as the pictures.

They are ornamental and afford the lighting that every room needs.

Let us help select them. We'll give you an estimate on wiring and fixtures for the whole house.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of magnesia.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, and if you don't gain 5 pounds in 30 days just get your money back.

One woman gained fifteen pounds in five weeks, according to her own doctor—another ten pounds in three weeks. A very sickly child, aged 9, twelve pounds in seven months, and now plays with other children and has a good appetite.

Just ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. Any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only six cents for 60 tablets.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

ELECTRIC SUPPLY CO. "STONEBURNERS" EVERYTHING ELECTRICAL 637 PROCTER ST. PHONE 207

Electric fixtures do as much to beautify a house as the pictures.

They are ornamental and afford the lighting that every room needs.

Let us help select them. We'll give you an estimate on wiring and fixtures for the whole house.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of magnesia.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. Any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only six cents for 60 tablets.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

Electric fixtures do as much to beautify a house as the pictures.

They are ornamental and afford the lighting that every room needs.

Let us help select them. We'll give you an estimate on wiring and fixtures for the whole house.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of magnesia.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. Any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only six cents for 60 tablets.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

Electric fixtures do as much to beautify a house as the pictures.

They are ornamental and afford the lighting that every room needs.

Let us help select them. We'll give you an estimate on wiring and fixtures for the whole house.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of magnesia.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. Any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only six cents for 60 tablets.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

Electric fixtures do as much to beautify a house as the pictures.

They are ornamental and afford the lighting that every room needs.

Let us help select them. We'll give you an estimate on wiring and fixtures for the whole house.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of magnesia.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The Editorial Mind

The Political SPOTLIGHT

WHAT IS HOME? THIS EX-CONVICTS WAS DUPLICATION OF PRISON CELL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Having passed the first milestone of the presidential campaign labor day, each of the three candidates is claiming new strength from the ranks of their opponents.

Spokesmen here for President Coolidge and John W. Davis, now contend they will divide more than half of the labor vote of the country between them.

These new claims were advanced as a result of the Labor Day addresses of both Coolidge and Davis.

LaFollette meantime received scores of enthusiastic telegrams from his leaders throughout the country notification of more money raised and pledges of support.

Following up the newly claimed advantages, Davis is sweeping westward on tour. Mr. Coolidge is now reported considering a trip to the middle west for two or three speeches. Senator Wheeler of the independent ticket is crusading through New England and LaFollette is preparing to start shortly.

Dr. Frank Crane's Editorials

Mr. Harry Gordon Selfridge stated, at the Decimal Metric Conference Association, at London the other day, that he was still stumped sometimes in dealing with pounds, shillings and pence. He declared that the government ought to have introduced a decimal currency into the country at the close of the war.

Things move slowly in Great Britain, where the influence of Conservatism is probably stronger than anywhere else in Christendom. In time the metric system will be adopted and the cumbersome pounds, shillings and pence, as well as the system of weights and measures, will be done away with.

No one, in his right mind, can declare logically that there is anything to be said in favor of the present way of counting money or registering measures. They are difficult, hard to learn and not easy to practice.

Book-keeping, under such systems, must be a matter of extreme difficulty. But, as far as that is concerned, the world still clings to its old calendar, which is awkward and irregular, and refuses to adopt a year or thirteen months or some similar system by which the same day of the week would fall upon the same day of the month every year and do away with the calendar.

Having once adopted an irrational method it is difficult to change it. It is hard to change the Chinese and Japanese languages and induce them to adopt an alphabetical method.

It is difficult to adopt any reform in spelling and to bring the written word more in conformity with its sounds. So it is difficult to change the habits of a nation in regard to its currency, its weights and measures.

Only France has succeeded in applying the decimal system rigidly everywhere. The United States has so far only succeeded in its currency.

Great Britain lags behind as she takes pride in her slowness and unwillingness to change anything.

Only time, and the demonstrated advantages of the decimal system will overcome the present means of compensation.

(Copyright, 1924, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

In New York

THIS NIGHTMARE WAS REAL

A monster with feet that made tracks as big as washtrubs! These tracks are discovered in Utah coal mines by William Peterson, geologist. He writes about them in Natural History magazine.

The monster was one of the giant dinosaurs that roamed parts of our country millions of years ago. It was a flesh-eating reptile. This particular specimen, which left its trail in Utah, was half-grown, compared with some of its relatives, for it was only 20 feet tall and 47 feet from nose to tail-tip.

It walked on its hind legs. Fore legs were small, used for clutching its prey.

Nature does nothing without a purpose. What was the purpose of these gigantic prehistoric monsters? One scientific guess runs as follows:

Nature invented big animals to dissipate energy back to its source, the sun. A dinosaur, clumsily moving through the jungle, smashing huge trees, released a lot of energy. On a small scale, theoretically, you release energy similarly when, for instance, you snap your fingers.

But the dinosaurs were unable to dissipate enough energy. Other energy was stored in coal, to be released later by man. Having experimented, nature began creating millions of smaller forms of life, to dissipate energy—and killed off the huge ones.

An auto releases more energy than a whole tribe of dinosaurs.

The more you study nature, the more you wonder if she has any definite goal. She seems to be experimenting. One life form after another has its cycle, then is discarded to make room for others. More recent cases of extinct life are passenger pigeons, the dodo and, almost, the buffalo.

Man is having his fling now. How long until man will become extinct? Many scientists predict that insects will rule the earth after us. Not pleasing to our vanity.

HOW WILL IT WORK

President Calvin Coolidge has approved a nation-wide campaign to enlist 25,000 clergymen of the country in a movement "to get out the Christian vote." In his letter to the working organization the president said he had been gratified to know the progress this movement has already made. Incidentally the Christian vote is to be urged to go to the polls on election day and perform their full duty of citizenship.

Hundreds of clergymen way down here in Texas besieged the Christian vote to go to the polls on August 23. The result must have been gratifying to the zealous workers. More than 800,000 men and women rushed to the polls and after the ballots had been counted "Ma" Ferguson and her ticket had been swept into office. By majorities ranging from 250,000 to 20,000, this is a state where a democratic nomination has ever been equivalent to an election.

Get out the Christian vote by all means. All men and women who are qualified, all who love America and its institutions, should go to the polls on election day, primary or otherwise and accept some of the responsibilities of government. If the Christian vote of the commonwealth or the nation is not interested in governmental affairs then the Christian vote should be.

In the bar room. Brass rail. Healthy laughter. Discussions of politics and business. Business men at elbows with laborers. Each airing his views. A painter with white overalls, white jumper and white cap. Black shoes spotted with all colors of paint, a merchant beside him.

Democracy. No hard liquor is sold. There is never any communion. It looks like a moving picture set of years gone by.

All girls in New York haven't bobbed their hair. Sixteen choruses girls in one dancing act are modern Lorelei. They appear rather aristocratic, too.

—STEPHEN HANNAGAN,

MOTORCYCLES GO DOWN From 240,000 at the beginning of 1920, the number of motorcycles in this country has declined steadily until now it is only 126,366. Cheap autos are a big reason.

Of course we respect congress, but why do people shudder at the prospect of throwing the election into the house?

Watching a cotton picker working by the day, it seems impossible to think that sort of thing is caused by a fly in Africa.

Even Orientals are slovenly. You can hire somebody to die for you in China, but you must keep on paying taxes when officially dead.

THE PORT ARTHUR NEWS EDITORIAL PAGE

LET US NOT LOVE IN WORD, NEITHER IN TONGUE; BUT IN DEED AND IN TRUTH.—1 JOHN 3:18. LOVE UNDERSTANDS LOVE; IT NEEDS NO TALK.—F. R. HAVERGAL.

That's What Makes 'Em Wild

The NERVOUS WRECK

by E. J. Rath

©1924 by N.E.A. Service Inc.

to think about it," she said. "But, just the same, I'm going to put you up to the nicest sandwiches I know how to make."

"All right. Anything at all."

"And I may even expect you to praise me."

"Sure, I will."

She laughed again, but there was not the least hint of teasing in her eyes.

"Henry Williams," she said, "sometimes you can be perfectly lovely. No; I know you don't understand. It makes it better because you don't."

He had no answer for that, and was uncomfortable. For some reason he could not explain, he was red in the face; he could feel it. He could not stand women, and he would never leave her.

"I guess I'll have another look for that wheel," he mumbled.

"All right. Good luck, old timer."

She watched him go, a half-amused, half-puzzled look in her eyes. There was a hint of motherliness in the smile on her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

He saw Chester Underwood emerging from the shed where the flivver stood on its crutch, but took no notice of him. There was nothing that Chester could contribute in the way of information, and he felt that it was politic to let him alone. The more he searched the more probable it seemed that he would ride away on Charley McSweeney's horse. He would not allow the small matter of a bet to detain him, although he would have found pleasure in her lips; but it was not all motherliness, either.

The Wreck was making another search of the outbuildings, squinting through his spectacles at places where the wheel might possibly be.

He had looked in all the likely places, so far as he could remember; now he tried looking in the unlikely ones. The part that puzzled him most was his patience and lack of temper. Ordinarily, he ought to have been fuming, with his nerves raw and his muscles twitching with irritation. But a stolid mood seemed to have settled upon him, and he continued his task with a phlegmatic calm that astonished him.

THE NEWS' SOCIAL AND HOUSEHOLD PAGE

Rev. and Mrs. Yelderman Honored in Homecoming Banquet by Bible Classes

DELIGHTFUL indeed was the banquet Saturday evening at the First Christian church arranged as homecoming party for Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Yelderman, who have been spending a three weeks' vacation in north Texas, the personnel of guests including members of the Men's Bible Class, which is taught by Mrs. Yelderman.

Members of the Women's Bible Class were hostesses on this occasion.

The entire lower floor of the church was turned into a banquet hall, the soft gray walls blending with artistic effect into the decorative scheme. The Women's Bible Class colors of gold and blue were featured with lovely effect in all details of the affair, the soft glow of floor lamps with golden shades giving an added charm to the scene. Dainty blossoms of the chosen hues gave floral charm, the length of the long tables, and elsewhere about the rooms tall baskets of lovely summer flowers were placed at vantage points. The programs were tied with dainty bows of gold and blue ribbons.

As the doors to the banquet hall were thrown open, the honor guests and the men were surprised to find the tables loaded down with delectable foods and a chicken banquet being served instead of only "lemonade," as previously announced.

A delightful program was rendered during the evening, opening with a clever welcome address by Mrs. C. E. Perry and the response by Rev. Yelderman. After grace was said by J. A. Bruton, Mrs. C. K. DeBusk gave an amusing toast to the men and Clarence DeBusk responded with an equally clever toast to the women.

Miss Gladys Garrett entertained with a beautiful vocal selection, "He Was a Prince," and little Miss Gertrude Frederickson gave a pleasing piano number, "May Day Dance." Little Miss Beulah Bruton delighted the guests with a reading, "Maggie and Jiggs at the Golden Gate," following which Mrs. H. Claud Holmes played a beautiful piano number, Chopin's "Waltz in G."

Two lovely vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. J. E. Grammier, who sang "In Memories' Garden" and "Fishing and Wishin'." Miss Lois Boutwell gave a charming piano solo, "The Evening Star," and little Miss Madge Summers entertained with a song, "Buy a Newspaper."

The feature of the evening came, however, when a surprise was announced by Mrs. W. E. Clinton as the next number on the program. The surprise proved to be a lovely birthday cake, on which were thirty-two candles, which was presented to Rev. Yelderman by Mrs. Henry P. Toote with an appropriate toast. After the candles were lit and extinguished by Rev. Yelderman, little Jean and Dorothy Conley, attired in frocks featuring the class colors, entered and presented a handsomely decorated box to Rev. Yelderman as a gift from the Women's Class. After opening numerous boxes before finding his gift he was surprised to find wrapped in tissue paper in a small box a piece of red stick candy. However, the real surprise was kept until the last when Johnny Rizer, president of the Men's Class, presented Rev. Yelderman with a handsome leather handbag on behalf of the Men's Class.

The program was then continued with a pleasing piano selection, "Polonaise" by Chopin, which was rendered by C. N. Bier, and a vocal number, "Love Sends a Gift," which was charmingly sung by Mrs. C. T. Long. The program was concluded with a delightful reading, "Angela Raynor" by Mrs. W. G. Montgomery.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Laube, Capt. and Mrs. H. M. Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Edgerton, Mrs. Margaret Bier, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDonald, Althea Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cheek, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dumphy, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sylvester, R. McDonald, John McDonald, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Burt Loy, Mrs. R. W. Welling, Miss Lois Boutwell, Mrs. N. W. Sunrall, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Laube, Mrs. N. W. Sunrall, Mrs. Dewey Bostic, Mrs. J. E. Grammier, Mrs. L. Moosman, Altha Tally, Rev. D. W. McElroy of Fort Worth, George Yelderman, Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Yelderman.

WALOH CAMP FIRE TO MEET

The Waloh Camp Fire will not hold the ceremonial meeting tomorrow afternoon as planned but instead will meet at the home of Mrs. George Steidl, Fourth and DeQueen boulevard, at 4 o'clock.

The ceremonial has been postponed until Thursday, September 11.

EDWARDS HEADS EDITORS

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 30.—Will C. Edward, of Denton will head the Northwest Press association for the coming year, it was decided at the closing session of the organization's annual convention here.

The 1925 convention will be held at Mineral Wells.

Feel Older Than You Are?

ARE you lame and stiff; worn out and dispirited; dragging around day after day with throbbing backache and sharp stabs of pain?

All too often this condition is due to a slowing up of the kidneys which allows body poisons to accumulate and upset the whole bodily machinery. Then comes constant backache, stabbing, rheumatic twinges, headaches, dizziness, nervousness and annoying bladder irregularities.

Get rid of these aches and pains! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

Here is Port Arthur Proof:

A. J. Griffith, retired policeman, 1021 Seventh St., says: "My back was weak. It pained so badly that at times I could hardly stand up. Sharp, darting pains went through me and many times I couldn't work. Headaches and dizzy spells were annoying, too. At night, my kidneys acted entirely too often. Doan's Pills stopped the backaches and put my kidneys in good order."

Doan's Pills

Stimulant Diuretic to the Kidneys

At all dealers, 60c a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfg. Chemists, Buffalo, N.Y.

Baptist Women Convening At Anahuac Today

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to the Southeast Texas Baptist Association is convening at the First Baptist church in Anahuac today with a large number of local women in attendance.

The program for the day's session is as follows:

Morning Service

10:00—Song service.
Devotional—Mrs. J. B. Marshall.

Presentation of visitors and new societies.

Words of welcome—Mrs. H. A. Grignon.

Response—Mrs. Earl Bunn.

Special music.

President's message—Mrs. T. E. Cannady of Port Arthur.

Hymn: "O Zion Haste."

Report on enrollment—Mrs. R. W. Lindsay.

The year's work: (1) Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. F. T. Outlaw of Port Arthur; (2) young people's secretary—Mrs. Hunter Beatty; (3) Personal service—Mrs. D. A. Jones; (4) reports of vice presidents; (5) finance and methods—Mrs. F. T. Outlaw of Port Arthur.

Miscellaneous business.

Announcements.

Adjournment.

Afternoon Session

1:30—Song service.
Devotional—Mrs. W. H. Forbes.

Reading minutes.

Reports of committees: (1) Enrollment, final report—Mrs. R. W. Lindsay; (2) nominating—Mrs. A. W. Franks; (3) in memoriam—Mrs. C. W. Culp of Port Arthur; (4) benevolence—Mrs. Fred Wilcox; (5) mission study—Mrs. T. Hahn; (6) education—Mesdames C. E. Earhart and T. B. Prescott; (7) missions—Mesdames S. B. Perry and R. F. Stokes; (8) White Cross—Mrs. J. Grimes; (9) Our District—Mrs. E. Earhart of Port Arthur.

Resolutions.

Reading minutes.

Evening Session

Young peoples demonstration.

♦ ♦ ♦

Gleaners Class To Hold Outing At Pier Friday

The Gleaners Class of the First Christian church will entertain at the Pleasure Pier Friday evening.

Plans for the outing were discussed at the class session Sunday morning, and the committee, comprised of Messers. Raymond Small, Lester Knight and L. G. Douglas, will arrange for the cold drinks for the supper, while Misses Altha Tally and Lorae Fears make arrangements for the sandwiches and salads for the occasion.

The young people will meet at the church at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening and will leave that point promptly at 6:45 o'clock and motor to the Pleasure Pier.

A delightful evening of entertainment is being planned by the girls of the class for the occasion, and a large number of young people are expected to attend the outing.

The Gleaners class is taught by Mrs. Henry P. Foote, and in addition to the members of the class all young men and women of the First Christian church are invited to attend the picnic supper. The class members are privileged to invite guests.

All girls who attend are requested to bring sandwiches or a picnic lunch, the boys having already arranged for the cold drinks.

♦ ♦ ♦

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET THURSDAY

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Felix Brouard at the Lake Shore apartments.

Mrs. L. M. Davis will assist Mrs. Brouard in hostess duties on this occasion. A delightful program is being arranged for the afternoon. All members of the Missionary Society and their friends are cordially invited to attend the session.

♦ ♦ ♦

MRS. M. CLICK IN LOUISIANA

Mrs. M. Click of 2331 Eleventh street is visiting her mother and sisters in DeRidder, La.

♦ ♦ ♦

Miss Renaud Becomes Bride Of Dr. Cochran

Of much interest to a host of Port Arthur friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Marguerite Renaud, daughter of Mrs. Robert Burns of 1648 Fourteenth street, and Dr. I. M. Cochran of Dallas, which took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the Sacred Heart Church in Galveston.

The bride was attractively gowned in a lovely frock of lustrous black satin with which she wore a smart black hat and accessories in harmony.

The only attendants were Miss Julia Bammert of this city, the bride's roommate at John Sealy Hospital, and Dr. Henry Celia, Dr. Cochran's fraternity brother, both being members of the Phi Chi Medical fraternity.

Mrs. Cochran is a graduate of the Port Arthur High School and has for the past three years been studying nursing at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, where she graduated yesterday.

Dr. Cochran is a graduate of the Southern Methodist University of Dallas and the State Medical College of the University of Texas.

Their wedding is the culmination of a romance begun two years ago when Dr. Cochran met his pretty bride while he was beginning his senior year in medicine and she was completing her first year of training at Sealy Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Cochran will visit in Port Arthur a few days before going to Dallas where they will make their home at 3521 Oak Grove avenue.

Enjoying this occasion were Mrs. C. Murray, Mrs. J. J. Melanson, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. R. L. Fickes, Mrs. B. F. Clark and Mrs. C. T. Brick.

♦ ♦ ♦

TEACHERS AND OFFICERS TO MEET ON THURSDAY

The teachers and officers of the First Christian church Sunday school will have their official meeting Thursday evening at the church at 7:45 o'clock.

Mrs. B. H. Stanley, superintendent of the Sunday school, requests a full attendance of the teachers and officers at this meeting.

♦ ♦ ♦

PEARS

$1.75 Bushel

BARNES' BAKERY

Phone 607

635 5th St.

See our window display.
Nippon cup and saucer
complete, decorated for

WELLER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

439 Austin

We Deliver

Mrs. Clinton Will Sponsor Program Friday

An especially interesting program has been arranged by the Missionary Society of the First Christian church for the monthly session Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Clinton will sponsor the program on the occasion, the subject of which will be "The Foundation is Laid, Let Us Build." The program, which will follow a short business session, will open with a hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up, for Jesus," and will be as follows:

1. Devotional—Mrs. S. E. Boney.

Scripture reading: Psalm 100.

The Jubilee Song—Mrs. Carl T. Long.

2. Golden Jubilee Notes—Rev. R. Yelderman.

3. Pageant: "The Clinic of a Missionary Specialist".

Characters:

Doctor Nozitz—Mrs. W. E. Clinton.

Nurse Tryett—Mrs. C. K. DeBusk.

Sever patients with the following ailments:

Writer's cramp and chills and fever—Mrs. J. A. Bruton.

Autonomilousness—Mrs. J. H. Stanley.

Housemaid's knee—Mrs. Burt Loy.

Near-sightedness—Mrs. J. B. Tally.

Rheumatism and hardening of the arteries—Mrs. A. H. Metz.

General debility—Mrs. Lee Summers.

4. Reading: "Discontented Souls"—Madge Summers.

♦ ♦ ♦

MRS. C. T. BRICK ENTERTAINS

Honoring Mrs. R. L. Fickes, who is leaving to make her home in Waco and Mrs. B. F. Clark, who leaves soon to make her home in Beaumont, Mrs. C. T. Brick entertained a few friends Friday afternoon at her home, 748 Main avenue.

Enjoying this occasion were Mrs. C. Murray, Mrs. J. J. Melanson, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. R. L. Fickes, Mrs. B. F. Clark and Mrs. C. T. Brick.

♦ ♦ ♦

TEACHERS AND OFFICERS TO MEET ON THURSDAY

The teachers and officers of the First Christian church Sunday school will have their official meeting Thursday evening at the church at 7:45 o'clock.

Mrs. B. H. Stanley, superintendent of the Sunday school, requests a full attendance of the teachers and officers at this meeting.

♦ ♦ ♦

MISS MIRIAM BARRIER GRADUATES FROM TEXAS U.

Mrs. Miriam Barrier, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Barrier of 2445 Proctor street, returned to Port Arthur yesterday after receiving her A. B. degree from the University of Texas at the commencement exercises on Saturday night.

Mrs. Barrier will re-enter the law department at the University of Texas this fall after spending a few weeks with her parents here. Though only eighteen years old Miss Barrier, distinguished herself while at school by excellent work. She was one of the youngest members of the graduating class, and also received this honor when she graduated from the Port Arthur High school in 1921.

Mrs. Barrier will enter the law

MISS MIRIAM BARRIER GRADUATES FROM TEXAS U.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee

BUILD NOW
MAKE THE
HOME BEAUTIFUL

HELPFUL HINTS ON HOME BUILDING

A BOOK OF "HELPS FOR THE MAN WHO WANTS TO BUILD" WILL BE SENT TO ANYONE INTERESTED, FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS IN STAMPS. FILL OUT AND MAIL COUPON BELOW.

PROFESSIONAL
BUILDING ADVICE
FREE

Lamp Insurance

Running a wire from a ceiling fixture to a floor or table lamp is likely to do two things. It may give an untidy appearance to the room that should be the most attractive in the home. It is usually in the way, and likely to result in breaking the lamp. Convenience outlets will eliminate both of these troubles.

"Convenience Outlets
Modernize the Home"

A. F. TOWNSEND, Manager

Eastern Texas Electric Co.

Nice and Comfortable—

Hardware
Furniture
Queensware
Silverware
Crockery

When we furnish your home you can be sure that it will be comfortable and nice and a place where you can entertain your most wealthy friends without embarrassment on account of cheap and unsuited furniture.

The best furniture at the lowest price.

J. E. TAYLOR Furniture and
Hardware
542 Houston Ave. Phone 581

Plans—

Before you build let us show you some of our plans. Ones that we are sure you will like. Homes built by these plans will be cozy and comfortable and the price of which, when built of the best materials, will be in the reach of all.

H. W. McCord

Contractor and Builder
Woolworth Bldg. on Procter St.

CITY WATER
FREE SEWER
NO CITY TAXES

EDGEMORE

OPEN IN SEPTEMBER

Suburban Development Co.
Merchants National Bank

Now is the Proper Time to Build

Just at this time there are lots of golden opportunities for those who desire to build. We have some very attractive lots that we will sell and build your home any time you desire. Get in touch with us before you buy. For full details see

Holland Texas
Hypotheek Bank

Plaza Hotel Building Phone 46

Are You Going To BUILD?

Books of Plans and Building Ideas
Only 25c
Get Yours at The News Office

OUTSIDE BEAUTY

The outside beauty of a home depends largely on the landscaping and as the late summer and fall months is the best time to plant flowers and shrubbery you had better let us do that landscaping work now. We are thoroughly experienced in landscaping and we know that you will like our work.

GRIFFING
NURSERIES

Phone 105 Port Arthur, Tex.

See Us About the LIGHTING

See us about the lighting for your new home. We use the best materials and charge the cheapest prices and give you the best of service too. If you already own a home let us get the lighting fixtures in shape for the winter months which you know is the season when you need lights the most.

We Also Do
Contracting
Electric
Specialty Co.

745 Procter Phone 1784

HOW TO BUILD YOUR HOME WALLS RIGHT

By the Architects Small House Service Bureau of the United States, Inc.

Outside walls of solid masonry are sometimes built with air spaces in them as in the tile wall. The solid brick wall may have these spaces included. There are various ways to do this so that cold and moisture will not penetrate. When these air-spaces do not exist in the wall itself, it is necessary for us to devise an air space between the plaster and the wall. We do this by putting strips against the masonry and nailing the lath to these. Plaster is then applied. Such a wall will be warm and dry. If it is built of good materials and good workmen are employed, it will last a long time and will not give you any trouble. Depreciation will be low.

Building a Masonry Wall
Think of brick and tile walls as a multitude of small blocks piled one upon the other. If the blocks overlap each other properly you have greater strength. Bonding is the name we give to this overlapping. It must go back into the wall as well as along the face of it. That is one of the first principles of masonry wall building. If the mason does not forget that the square and plumb are his important instruments you will have another principle well observed, and then if the blocks are cemented together with a mortar generously made and skillfully applied you will have added strength.

But one thing more. The block itself what about that? A well-poured clay unit, to tile or brick, is something like a mass of impure glass. It has temper as far from that of poorly burned product as Damascus steel is from pot metal. The better the temper the stronger it will be.

We have come a long way in the building of walls since the cave man first learned to daub around reeds and the branches of trees. He built a temporary wall. When it rained it probably did not trouble him much to have a thin trickle of mud insinuating itself down his spinal column. Tight walls and roof did not mean much to him. Since that day we have learned how to build many kinds of walls—stone, brick, wood, tile, concrete—and we have learned that every one of them must be built with understanding to get the protection our dollars are intended to buy. It is easy to think of a stone wall as the strongest wall that can be built, but this is not necessarily true. Everything depends on the stone and the workmanship, just as it does with other materials used in wall building.

This is the last of three articles appearing in this column on "How to Build Walls."

HELP FOR THE MAN WHO WANTS TO BUILD

LEAKS, AND HOW YOU CAN AVOID THEM

You cannot easily withstand an uncontrolled leak in your pocket-book. Neither can you long endure a leaking house. If your house leaks your pocketbook may be drained. That is the reason for this story.

Stop Leaks With Horse Sense

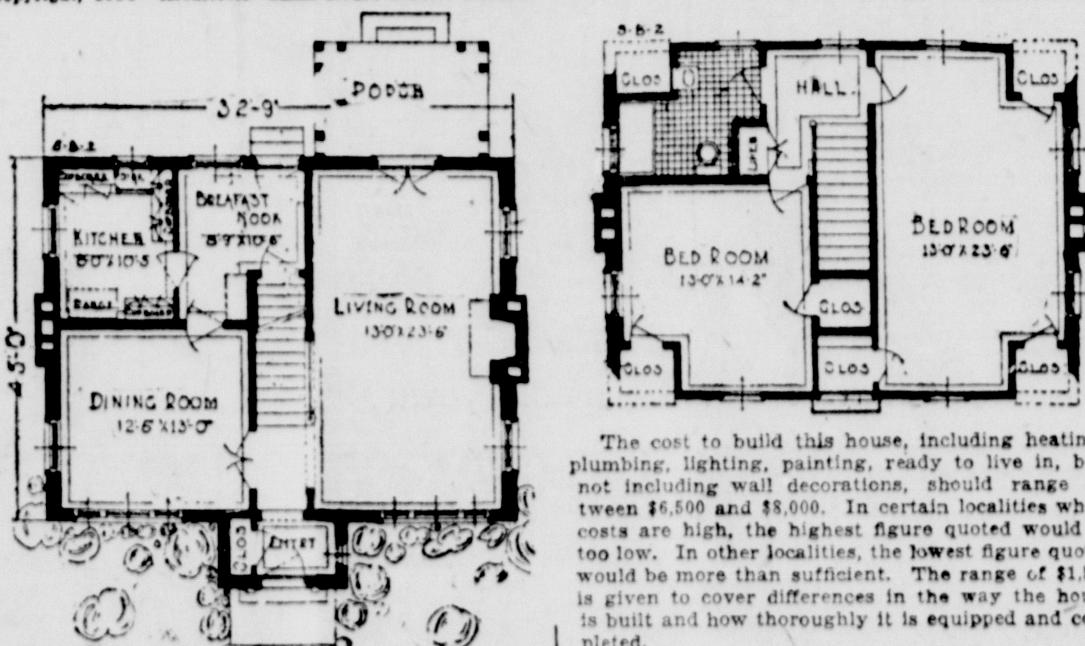

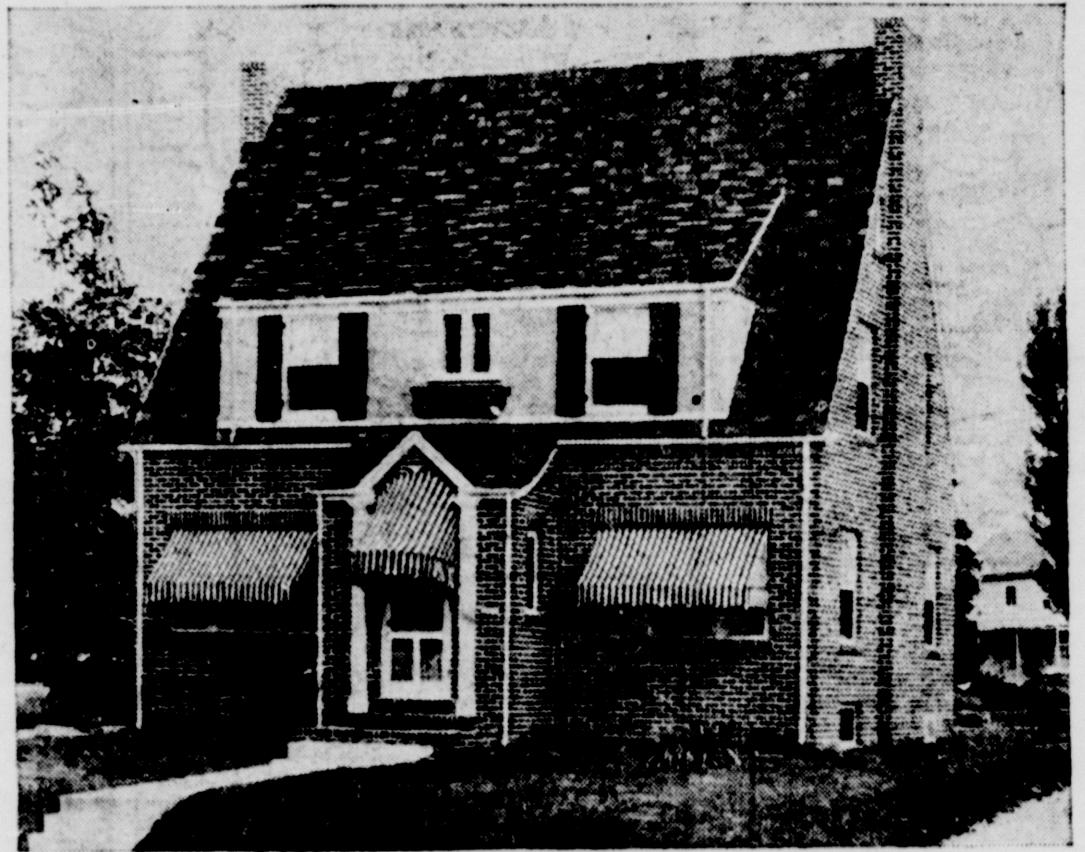

Most home building efforts are directed toward the prevention of leaks. The way you build must not leak heat, cold, wind or rain. The roof you place over your head, if it leaks, then maledictions on the roofer. There are the pipes that the plumber puts in. He is supposed to do a quality of work such that you may never again be reminded of him. When the plumbing leaks, it violates your confidence, besides ruining the plaster. Then there are smoke leaks, gas leaks, spark leaks, leaky flues. What a hazardous place is your home after all. Perhaps, this is what Mark Twain was thinking of when he said that a bed was the most dangerous place in the world, for more men had died there than anywhere else.

These wires strung around your walls may spill electricity, and if they do, how long before you call the fire department? What if your basement leaks? Then you may have to convert the wash tub into a sea-going tug and pole yourself about the flood to get the dinner's supply of potatoes. The more one thinks of this the more tremendous these leak problems become. Let us stop them all with a little horse sense.

Leaks Like Topsy: "Just Grow Up"
Perhaps, not everyone can tell what causes a leak. But certainly anyone can find one after it starts. Sometimes they exist from the first—born when the house is built. Sometimes they grow up as the house wears down. In any case they are a vicious brood mothered by the slattern, illegitimate materials, or else by the dowdy workmanship.

The first bulwark of the home is the wall. You can build it many different ways. One way we saw the other day when a friend took us into his basement. Between the sill and the foundation wall was a crack so large that through it we could actually read the license plates on passing automobiles. When you build walls you want openings in them for light and air, but you must be inconsiderate enough to require the carpenter and the mason to restrict the location of these to the more formal doors and windows.

FIVE ROOM BRICK HOUSE—COMPACT PLAN

The Brick for Your Home

should be chosen with care. There are many grades, shades and colors to be considered. Better come in and let us show you.

J. Imhoff & Sons
Phones 36 and 37

Cement
Sand
Gravel
Plaster
Sewer Pipe
Brick
Common Brick
Face Brick
Fire Brick

PAINT NOW—

Don't put off that job of painting any longer. The sooner you have it done the longer is the life of the house. Consult us today.

PALMER PAINT & PAPER CO.

C. V. PALMER, General Contractor

Phone 3117

Ice for the Home

Safeguard your homefolks from germs and other impurities by calling 404 for Ice Service. Only the purest distilled water is used.

CONSUMER'S ICE AND COAL COMPANY
Phone 404 945 to 1001 Houston Ave.

About Half of the CONCRETE WALKS
in Port Arthur, Texas, were laid by us
SECREST CONSTRUCTION CO.
BUILDING CONTRACTOR
429 Fifth St. PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS Phone 560

BUILDING

MAKE - SAVE - HAVE MONEY

DON'T REGRET

Leave the ranks of could-have-beens! Homestead has paid 11% dividends its first year. Your funds deposited with us go directly into first mortgages of which you are part owner. Your money is safe and you get ALL the earnings. Don't ignore longer this real opportunity.

HOMESTEAD BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
427 AUSTIN AVE.

Phone 2487 11%—Paid 11% Dividends the First Year—11%

LOAN

THE GUMPS—LEND ME YOUR EARS

REG'LAR FELLERS

An Ostrich Can Eat Anything

By GENE BYRNES

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

It Couldn't Be Done

By BLOSSER

ALESMAN SAM

Sweep Out Padded Cell No. 666

By SWAN

UR BOARDING HOUSE

By AHERN

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By STANLEY

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

NO. 22—A REMARKABLE SIDE-SHOW

The Twins were selling tickets.

The circus was to begin at 1 o'clock, and long before that time the place was crowded.

Weeny said to Toby, the dog, and Prince, the pony, that if business kept up they would have enough money to take two more vacations.

The Twins were selling tickets and all the wood folk and meadow folk for miles around crowded to get in.

"I'm no sure about this circus business," said Daddy Cracknuts, as he passed 10 cents for two tickets to Nick, for himself and his wife. "Are you sure you have no foxes or tigers or anything that might take a notion to make a meal of us?"

"Honestly we haven't, Daddy," said Nick. "There's nobody in our circus but a nice kind elephant and a dog and a pony."

"Then I'll go and tell the other people what you said," remarked Daddy. "Have you got any sideshows?"

"Yes, we've got a fine sideshow," said Nick. "That's two cents extra. You go into that before the circus begins."

Daddy went out, but soon he came back. "They are all coming," he cried. "All the Bunnies and Coons and Cottontails and Woodchucks and everybody. And they are all going to see your sideshow, too! Gimme two tickets extra for ma and me. Come on, ma."

"There's the sideshow over there," said Nick, pointing to a clump of bushes and a big sign which said, "See the greatest curiosity in the world! A pony's head where his tail ought to be!"

"For the land's sake!" cried Ma Cracknuts excitedly. "A pony's head where his tail ought to be! Oh, pa!"

(Copyright, 1924, by NEA Service, Inc.)

CHILD'S STORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

By Uncle RAY

THE STORY OF COLUMBUS

Part 1—A Young Sailor Goes to Portugal

While Prince Henry of Portugal was sending his ships down the African coast, an important event happened in Italy. A son was born in the family of Dominico Columbus. The infant was

When the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

By that time, Prince Henry was dead, but the Portuguese were still busy coasting down Africa's shore. Christopher seems to have been engaged as a sailor. He made several trips and sailed as far south as the equator.

Wherever he was born, Christopher was glad to live as a boy near the great harbor of Genoa. Ships were always coming in to that harbor, and sailors were never tired of telling tales of the sea. We can well believe that he often sat on the knee of some seaman and listened to stories of strange lands.

While the lad was only 14, he went to see himself. For the next ten years, it appears, he spent much of his time in the company of a band of pirates who were the terror of the Mediterranean sea.

Happy, Christopher did not care to be a pirate all his life. He used his free time to study. During his youth he had learned to read and write. No doubt some of the words in his books were hard to understand, but he kept at them until he knew pretty well what they meant.

What sort of books do you think he read?

They were about travel, the sea, the land and the shape of the earth.

Some ancient Greeks had figured out that the earth must be "round like a ball." By good fortune, certain of their writings came into the hands of the young sailor. They had been put into Latin, which Columbus could read.

He thought:

"If the earth is round, maybe a ship could get to India by sailing west instead of east!"

With this idea perhaps already in his brain, he went to Lisbon, Portugal, to live. One of his younger brothers was already dwelling there, making maps for a living.

If You Don't Find What You Want Here—Let Your Ad Here Find It for You

STORM DELAYS 'T' MOTORSHIP

Expected To Arrive in Port Friday

Because of the storm raging in the Atlantic Ocean, the Transmarine corporation's motor ship Sophence will not make Beaumont before Friday, according to advices received by the Port Arthur offices of the line. The vessel was scheduled to arrive on the regular southbound voyage early this week to discharge cargo at Beaumont and load out in Port Arthur for the northbound sailing next Saturday.

ARRIVED SEPTEMBER 1 AND 2

Vessel, Flag, Tonnage, Agent, Location

Pennsylvania Sun, 5535; from Philadelphia to Smiths Bluff, Jure Oil company.

Engent V. R. Thayer, 5111, from Philadelphia to Port Arthur, Atlantic company.

Gulfmaid, 3248, from Philadelphia to Port Arthur, Gulf company.

Gulfstate, 4452, from Tampico to Port Arthur, Gulf company.

Jadden, 5358, from New Orleans to Port Arthur, Lakes-Sgtovich.

Clearton (Br.), 3209, from U. K. ports to Port Arthur, Sydney C. Collier company.

Gene Crawley, 2488, from Tampico to Port Arthur, Eastern Texas Electric company.

South seas, 1612, from West Indies to Orange, Hall Shipping company.

Currier, 2869, from Tampico to Port Arthur, Gulf company.

SAILED SEPTEMBER 1 AND 2

Ramapo, U. S. N., from Beaumont for Sabine, Magnolia company.

Gulfprince, 4008, from Port Arthur for Philadelphia, Gulf company.

Ligonier, 2306, from Port Arthur for Port Tampa, Gulf company.

Pennsylvania Sun, 5535, from Smiths Bluff for Sabine, Pure Oil company.

Gulfcoast, 3202, from Port Arthur for Jacksonville, Gulf company.

New York, 5045, from Port Arthur for Norfolk, Texas Company.

Muscoomo (Br.), from Port Arthur for Germany and Italy, Pure Oil company.

IN PORT ARTHUR

Grain Elevator

Clearton (Br.), 3209, Sydney C. Collier company.

Texas Company Docks

Saltation Lass, 3057, Lakes-Sgtovich.

Texas, 5045, Texas Company.

Virginia, 5048, Texas Company.

Eugene V. R. Thayer, 5111, Atlantic company.

Jadden, 5358, Lakes-Sgtovich.

Gulf Company Docks

Gulfmaid, 3248, Gulf company.

Gulfstate, 4452, Gulf company.

Currier, 2869, Gulf company.

AT ORANGE

Bark Ingrid (Dan), 712, W. H. Tippin company.

Norman Isles (Dan), 2714, W. H.

Tippin company.
Sch. Nancy Hanks, 1030, W. H. Tippin Company.

South seas, 1612, Hall Shipping company.

AT BEAUMONT

Lake Slav, 1612, Lakes-Sgtovich.

BAROMETER READING

The corrected reading of the barometer (reduced to sea level, at the U. S. weather bureau office in Port Arthur, Texas, on Tuesday, September 2, at 7 a. m., was 29.93 inches.

This closely approximates 700.2 millimeters.

TIKE REPORT

The tide in the ship canal at Port Arthur, Texas, on Tuesday, September 2, at 8 a. m., according to the reading of the U. S. engineer's gauge was 1.1 (one and one-tenth) feet.

Dawes' attack will be directly on LaFollette and his record in the sen-

DAWES TO ADDRESS WISCONSIN VOTERS

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential candidate has decided to invade Wisconsin, home state of Robert M. LaFollette.

The Wisconsin speaking tour will be mapped out this week at a conference between Dawes and the party managers.

Dawes' attack will be directly on LaFollette and his record in the sen-

OBSTRUCTIONS TO NAVIGATION

The following was issued through the New Orleans branch of the United States hydrographic office:

August 26, latitude 36 degrees, 59 minutes, longitude 75 degrees, 53 minutes (about 7 miles northeast by east of Cape Henry Lighthouse), passed a spar about 30 feet long. Steamship Stanley Dollar. (Report by radio).

August 27, latitude 33 degrees, 28 minutes, longitude 77 degrees, 33 minutes, about 80 degrees from and about 4 miles off Frying Pan Shoals gas and whistle buoy passed what was apparently the lowermost of a vessel projecting about 20 feet out of water. Steamship Franklin. (Report by radio).

August 28, latitude 33 degrees, 42 minutes, longitude 77 degrees, 42 minutes, passed a log about 40 feet long and 2 feet in diameter. Steamship Hoxbar.

August 29, latitude 24 degrees, 37 minutes, longitude 81 degrees, 6 minutes, passed a white can buoy. Steamship Agriworld. (Report by radio).

August 30, latitude 23 degrees, 44 minutes, longitude 31 degrees, 40 minutes, passed a tree trunk about 40 feet long and 4 feet in diameter with branches. Steamship Berwindmoor (Br.), Williams. (Report by radio).

August 31, latitude 28 degrees, 20 minutes north, longitude 88 degrees, 42 minutes west, passed partly submerged wreckage, 40 feet long, 20 feet wide. Steamship Roma. Master Angus.

REAL BEACH COP

HULL, Eng., Sept. 2.—Officer Caleb York has openly defied the city government. As the patrolman assigned to Carberry beach, he insists on wearing a bathing suit on duty. This is in defiance of an edict that all members of the police department shall wear the same uniform. York's popularity at Carberry beach precludes the possibility of dismissal, however.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Caravans as cozy as small flats, with a speed of 30 miles an hour, are the newest form of luxury for those who love the simple life. The caravans are 12 feet long and afford sleeping accommodations for three persons. They have good kitchens, sinks and ventilated larders.

DEUTZER'S BEAUTY SHOPPE

Deutzer's Store.

Services Offered

MRS. HAUSE DESIRES to inform her friends and customers that she is at 2138 Procter street this season in the room of the Nonpareil. Phone 2459-X.

PAINTING AND PAPER HANGING

Phone 2619-W, R. H. Badgett.

UNION TRANSFER CO.

Moving—Crating—Storage

Corner Sixth and Austin. Phone 2426

Remodeling—House Repairing

Phone 1278-J for Quick Service

J. W. MORRIS

BUILDING CONTRACTOR AND

HOUSE RAISING AND MOVING

Phone 3056-1 709 Fifth Ave

$100 SPECIAL for piano tuning during August. Call Taylor, phone 670-2817-Y.

EVER-READY TRANSFER

25 Austin Ave. Phone 1785

O. C. MIZELL

House Moving & Raising phone 2152-J

Moving—Crating

Largest Trucks $5.00

Trucks 50c

LONE STAR TRANSFER CO.

(Johnny On the Spot)

$12 Procter St. Phones 294-214

FURNITURE

Upholstering, Refinishing, Crating

J. RUSLING 2424 Ninth. Phone 1923

COINGTON BRO.

Moving, Storage and Packing

Phone 433 506 Fifth St

V. Amy Sheet Metal Works

Tanks and General Sheet Metal Work

Shop 306 Seventh, Phone 657

OLD MATTRESS MADE NEW

G. & H. MATTRESS COMPANY

Phone 357 15th and Fort Worth

Work called for and delivered same day.

Help Wanted—Female

WOMAN to wash, iron and live on premises. Apply 1701 Eighth St.

THE WRITER—Applications for 200 girls and young women who desire employment in a modern studio room, making shirts, pants and overalls in Port Arthur. Answer "616" care News.

WANTED—Ladies in this locality to embroider linens for us at home during their leisure moments. Write at once. "Fashion Embroideries," 995, Lima, Ohio.

Situation Wanted

ELDERLY Christian lady desires place, companion, housekeeper to widower, Box 10. News.

PRACTICAL NURSE DESIRES work. Can handle any case and furnish best of reference. Phone 620.

PRACTICAL nurse desires confinement cases. Phone 2357-Y, 1135 DeQueen.

Rooms For Rent

BEDROOM for 2, all conveniences.

519 Stillwell Blvd.

OFFICE rooms, cool, modern, 524

Fifth street, Harris Book Store.

ROOM facing lake, private family and modern, 1223 Fifth St.

TWO nice cool rooms suitable for 2 or 4, modern, 499 Lake Shore Drive.

BEDROOM, newly furnished walnut suite, conveniently quiet for Franklin school teachers or business couple, no children in house, 815 Sixth. Board next door.

CICHLIMORI, 616 Sixth, cool rooms for gentlemen, modern, hot water, also garage.

MODERN room for gentlemen, 918 Sixth street, phone 1617.

MODERN office and sleeping rooms, 624 Fifth street, Harris Book Store.

Housekeeping Rooms

TWO furnished light housekeeping rooms, modern, 230 Third, phone 300.

TWO large furnished housekeeping rooms, running water each room, 616 Sixth.

TWO furnished housekeeping rooms and sleeping porch, modern, 728 Seventh.

TWO nice unfurnished rooms, $10.00 month, 1215 Thirteenth.

THE PORT ARTHUR NEWS

LONG WORK FUTILE

PARIS, Sept. 2.—After 40 years consecrated to the task of revising the French dictionary, the "Forty Immortals" of the French academy have found that during this time the language has been so modified that they must begin all over again with the task of revision. The first volume of the "revision of the revision" will be published within the next year.

TWO SCHOOLS SET ON FIRE ON OPENING DAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—School opening day at the Mark Sheridan school here today was marred by two fires, both apparently of incendiary origin.

Fraternal

JOIN NOW—Worshipers of the World Charter open for new members, special rates. Old members of the W. O. W. admitted free until October 31. Strongest and surest home protection in the world, 100 per cent solvent plus. Deuter's Beauty Shoppe.

WHAT'S YOUR BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

WHAT'S YOUR
BOX NUMBER, SIR?

Science Plans to Wrest Answer to Fair God of Mayas From Yucatan Jungles

ANCIENT TEMPLE TREASURE TROVE

Bones of Kukulcan Believed Found

CHICHEN-ITZA, Yucatan, Sept. 2.—Has the sepulchre of the "Fair God" been located in the ruins of Chichen-Itza? Science plans to wrest the answer from the heart of a crumbling pyramid.

The proposed explorations will be based upon the startling theory that the remains of Kukulcan, whom the Mayas apotheosized as their culture hero, were discovered over a decade ago by Edward H. Thompson, beneath the strange mound known as "Osario."

The worship of Kukulcan as Quetzalcoatl, or the "feathered serpent," extended to all parts of ancient Anahuac. The ruins of his magnificent temple may be seen at San Juan Teotihuacan in the Valley of Mexico. The legend holds that this great teacher-priest of the "fair countenance" came out of the East to instruct the races of the plateau in art and science and religion, and when his mission was fulfilled, disappeared into the East again on a boat of entwined serpents.

The point of his traditional departure on the southern shore of the Mexican Gulf is still known as Quetzalcoatl. Chichen-Itza lies directly east of it. According to many Maya scholars, including Dr. Franz Blom of the Carnegie Institution, Kukulcan returned here to end his days among his own people. If this interpretation of the legend of the "Fair God" is founded on historic fact, some hieroglyphic inscription in absolute proof of Thompson's theory, may reward further excavations in the "Osario."

Yesterday, I sat with the veteran archaeologist on the columned summit of the structure which once may have marked the most sacred plot in the Western Hemisphere.

Don Eduardo, as Thompson is known throughout Yucatan, related how the unusual design of this pyramid had always intrigued his fancy. "In the whole Maya area," he explained, "it is the only one that has a stairway on each of its four sides.

The balustrades formed of huge serpent bodies terminating at the base with elaborately sculptured heads, together with the serpent motif on the highly carved pillars of the crowning temple, indicate that it was a place of great sanctity. The serpent was the most venerated religious symbol among the ancient Maya.

"Chichen-Itza itself was dedicated to a very special serpent worship, since it was the insignia of the Can family, to which belonged its founder, the great Kukulcan.

One day while investigating here on the summit, I detected a hollow space under the floor in the center of the little temple. The lifted stones revealed a grave. The bones, as well as the funeral pottery had been broken into bits by falling rocks.

"The interior of the tomb was formed of polished stones arranged in geometric pattern. On testing the bottom slab with my sounding rod, I found another hollow space below, and eventually another grave.

"In the fifth and last burial, there was a collection of rock crystal beads, artificially fluted and tinted a delicate pink."

But Don Eduardo's archaeological adventure had only begun when he reached the bottom of the shaft. To his amazement, there was another hollow space below the surface level. It was a chamber of about 12 feet long and four feet wide.

On one side, a flight of steps, cut into the rock, led to a narrow opening. With the aid of rope and tackle, the intrepid explorer descended into the hole to find himself in a large bottle-shaped cavern. It was 40 feet deep and its walls had been artificially widened to a width of about 10 feet.

At the bottom, under a pile of earth and pottery fragments, he found what he believes to be the mortal remains of Kukulcan.

In the wall, a few feet above the floor, was a removable rock. With great effort it was dislodged, and a cold gust of wind swept through the chamber.

Don Eduardo replaced the stone, and younger men must complete the exploration. But he is of the opinion that the opening leads to a subterranean passage, and connects, according to Indian lore, with the Xiole cenote, one of the great wells of Chichen-Itza.

He also believes that this discovery is the most precious part of the inheritance which he will leave to Carnegie Institution as a result of his 40 years of research in the capital of the vanished Itzas.

Will science prove it to be the thread of gold in the tangled skein of the Maya mystery?

Two Pros Hurt When Rum Chaser is Burned

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—Joseph Thomas and Julius Allen, attached to the local prohibition enforcement staff, were burned, the former seriously, a $25,000 government rum running craft burst into the water's edge and a residence near where the vessel was moored was destroyed by fire which broke out aboard the vessel here last night. The fire followed an explosion is not known. It occurred as the dry agents prepared to embark on a reconnaissance to head off several rum laden craft reported headed for this city.

MORE SALES AHEAD

Auto manufacturers throughout the country look forward to better business for fall. They have been set back a little during the last month or so.

Above Alma Reed (center) about to make the descent into the "Osario" where Edward H. Thompson (pictured at the right) believes the remains of Kukulcan, the "Fair God," will be found. Below are Dr. Earl H. Morris, chief of excavations for the Carnegie Institution at Chichen-Itza, and his wife who assists him in his archaeological work.

Valentino Comes Back In Monsieur Beaucaire, Claim

BY JACK JUNGMEYER
News Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 2.—If there had been any doubt that the Valentino vogue had waned during his absence from the screen, it has been completely dissipated by the ovation given him at the western premier of "Monsieur Beaucaire" at Grauman's Million Dollar theater in Los Angeles and the New York opening of the Strand.

There are not only picture celebrities as they have seldom gathered for any first showing, but folk who make and maintain the cinema clambored for standing room. Women largely, yes. But men, too, who hope to learn about gallants from Rudy.

The picture amply justifies the curiosity and continued patronage.

Every bit of painstaking labor, artistry, and prescience which could be summoned by Paramount, the producers, was focused in the making of "Beaucaire." It will undoubtedly stand high among the best ten of the season's contributions.

As a gorgeous costume play, and for sheer beauty of presentation, it has never been topped. Very cannily, perhaps with some doubt as to Valentino's reception, the producers did not subordinate the production to the star. It stands very sturdily upon its own handsome legs, without, however, distracting in any wise from Valentino's personality and gifts or his own prodigiously displayed netters.

For this balance, "Beaucaire" is a rare achievement.

The picture, too, entrenches Sidney Olcott, director, among the stalwarts of his craft. To him much of the film's superb quality is due.

In the role of cavalier at the studiously erotic court of Louis XIV and the assemblies of the powerful Madame Pompadour, Valentino has wide latitude to show those amorous traits which have made him an idol.

Rudy's Silk Tights

"Beaucaire" is a prince who masquerades for a time as a baron to escape the dangerous displeasure of Pompadour and the complexities of romantic escapades. In his disguise he thinks his pagan gods that he is not expected to make love to every woman he meets. But as the baron, he jumps from bayonet to bayonet in an entanglement with the belle of Bath, Lady Mary, shallow leader of England's smart set of the hour. After an exile replete with risky adventure he returns to marry the dignified and virginal French girl who alone had rebuffed his mocking advances.

In adapting himself to the role of a French dandy, Valentino has shuffled off some of his characteristic laugher.

The usual physical stress is less evident in "Beaucaire" than in its immediate precursors. This despite the fact that producers made an obvious effort to cater to the presumed erotic interest of his followers—in dwelling upon scenes displaying Rudy's bare torso, silk tights, his fencing and athletic prowess, his physical and his dressing room display.

Against the gorgeous filigree of the French court, Bebe Daniels is a vision of loveliness in her white wig, as the girl to whom the prince returns after disillusioning adventure. Lois Wilson is effective as the pathetic queen of Louis, who is rather formally interpreted by Lowell Sherman.

Doris Kenyon scores high in the exciting role of the belle of Bath. And Paulette Duval gives an interesting but superficial portrait of Pompadour, brilliant, dangerous favorite of the court. Others maintaining the high level of "Beaucaire" are Ian MacLaren, John Davidson, Flora Finch, Frank Shannon and Templar Powell.

Valentino dignifies himself by not seeming to detract, beyond requirements of the Tarkington story, from his talented associates in the picture. His comeback has been gracefully accomplished at one bound.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO

Amusements

TUESDAY
Cameo: Marguerite de La Motte, John Bowers and others in "Desire."
Peoples: Rudolph Valentino and Bebe Daniels in "Monsieur Beaucaire."
Pearce: "The Arizona Express."
Liberty: Jane Novack in "The Lullaby."
Strand: Wm. S. Hart in "Singer Jim McKee."
Green Tree: "The Riding Fool."

WEDNESDAY

Cameo: Reginald Denny in "The Reckless Age."
Peoples: Rudolph Valentino and all star cast in "Monsieur Beaucaire."
Liberty: Jane Novack in "The Lullaby."
Strand: Wm. S. Hart in "Singer Jim McKee."
Green Tree: "South Sea Love," and episode 18 of "Oregon Trail."

BEAUTIFUL SCENES

An outdoor wedding was staged in Beverly Hills, California, for one of the big scenes in "Desire," at the Cameo theatre.

The grounds where the scene was filmed are peculiarly adapted for such a purpose. The lawn terrace, comprising one portion of the grounds, forms a rectangular depression which could be likened to the interior of a church. A pulpit was set on a terrace at one end and behind it a choir and orchestra. Benches like the pews of a church were placed in a row on either side of the miniature amphitheatre, leaving a wide aisle between.

As a gorgeous costume play, and for sheer beauty of presentation, it has never been topped. Very cannily, perhaps with some doubt as to Valentino's reception, the producers did not subordinate the production to the star. It stands very sturdily upon its own handsome legs, without, however, distracting in any wise from Valentino's personality and gifts or his own prodigiously displayed netters.

For this balance, "Beaucaire" is a rare achievement.

The picture, too, entrenches Sidney Olcott, director, among the stalwarts of his craft. To him much of the film's superb quality is due.

In the role of cavalier at the studiously erotic court of Louis XIV and the assemblies of the powerful Madame Pompadour, Valentino has wide latitude to show those amorous traits which have made him an idol.

Rudy's Silk Tights

"Beaucaire" is a prince who masquerades for a time as a baron to escape the dangerous displeasure of Pompadour and the complexities of romantic escapades. In his disguise he thinks his pagan gods that he is not expected to make love to every woman he meets. But as the baron, he jumps from bayonet to bayonet in an entanglement with the belle of Bath, Lady Mary, shallow leader of England's smart set of the hour.

After an exile replete with risky adventure he returns to marry the dignified and virginal French girl who alone had rebuffed his mocking advances.

In adapting himself to the role of a French dandy, Valentino has shuffled off some of his characteristic laugher.

The usual physical stress is less evident in "Beaucaire" than in its immediate precursors. This despite the fact that producers made an obvious effort to cater to the presumed erotic interest of his followers—in dwelling upon scenes displaying Rudy's bare torso, silk tights, his fencing and athletic prowess, his physical and his dressing room display.

Against the gorgeous filigree of the French court, Bebe Daniels is a vision of loveliness in her white wig, as the girl to whom the prince returns after disillusioning adventure. Lois Wilson is effective as the pathetic queen of Louis, who is rather formally interpreted by Lowell Sherman.

Doris Kenyon scores high in the exciting role of the belle of Bath. And Paulette Duval gives an interesting but superficial portrait of Pompadour, brilliant, dangerous favorite of the court. Others maintaining the high level of "Beaucaire" are Ian MacLaren, John Davidson, Flora Finch, Frank Shannon and Templar Powell.

Valentino dignifies himself by not seeming to detract, beyond requirements of the Tarkington story, from his talented associates in the picture. His comeback has been gracefully accomplished at one bound.

KEEP CLEAN INSIDE

STOP ITCHING ECZEMA

Penetrating Antiseptic Zemo Will Help You

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching Eczema quickly by applying Zemo furnished by any druggist for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment Zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of Eczema, Fetter Pimples, Rash, Blackheads and similar "diseases" will be removed.

Seeing Valentino in this screen resurrection, one is challenged anew to define his charm and undeniable hold on a vast following. Mere physical appeal does not wholly account for it. Nor his mere acting ability, appraised as that may be.

Is it his seeming modesty, under the camera, his air of deference in romantic situations, his designing show of reluctance to reveal consum-

SOUL GREATEST QUESTION TODAY

Man Must Answer It, Says Rev. Yelderman

Urging that his audience listen attentively to the scripture lesson for the evening, Rev. R. R. Yelderman, pastor of the First Christian church, read from the twenty-seventh chapter of Matthew, Sunday evening, emphasizing the words, "He that hath ears let him hear."

The subject for the evening's discourse was "The One Great Question."

"Life is made up largely of a question mark," Rev. Yelderman declared. "We are continually asking questions. There are many things we do not understand and there are many questions about life we ask but have we ever asked the question, 'What Am I?'"

"Have you ever tried to answer that question? During the past generation much discussion has ensued over the question 'Whence Is Man?'"

"That is a great question but still a greater question is 'Whence Am I Going?'"

"There is only one book that can answer that question and that's God's holy book."

"But what we want to consider this evening is that great question—not one that may interest a person today and will have lost its glamor tomorrow. Some people are only interested in money. Some men forget themselves, their country and their God."

"The question of how to make more money, 'Whom Shall I Marry?'"

"Is a great question in the average young man's and young woman's life."

"But interesting and vital as these questions are they still are not the question I am to talk about tonight. It is the question asked 2,000 years ago by a governor, is 'What shall I do with Jesus, who is called the Christ?'"

"My fellowman, that's the greatest question which will ever face you!"

"Look at some of the men who answered the question. Judas Iscariot sold him for money. Think how many men there are today who would sell Him for money! Think how stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

stupendous note of drama. Here and there Producer Bennett has leavened the power of drama with keen touches of comedy."

"California Fig